

AGE TWENTY-FIVE I got a job as a salesman and channelled all my aggression into being number one. I had no self-esteem whatsoever, but I now had an opportunity to prove that I wasn't a worthless piece of shit. I joined the company halfway through a sales competition to go to Hong Kong. I won the competition easily and overnight from a salesforce of over two hundred, I became the undisputed top salesman!

In my first year in sales I moved from a council bedsit, to a detached house close to Ascot racecourse. I recruited twenty salesmen that worked directly for me, had my first holiday abroad in Hong Kong and China and purchased my first Rolls Royce. A year to the day of starting in sales, I purchased a Ferrari 308 GTS. I also had a Lotus, a Bentley, three more Rolls Royce's and other exotic cars, but I had no purpose in life, I was a lost soul with no direction whatsoever.

Before the age of thirty, I was involved in no less than eighteen car crashes. Seventeen were alcohol related and two were road rage, where I just knocked people off of the road, much in the same way you do when you drive bumper cars at a fairground!

On one occasion, whilst drunk, I drove my Ferrari at over 100 mph up the M4 motorway near London, in the wrong direction towards oncoming traffic! Because of what happened to me in the children's home, I had few boundaries with even less after I had consumed alcohol.

I thought I was good at relationships because I had lots of them!

I didn't know how to love, so I just had numerous sexual encounters with girls, without any intimacy, warmth or relationship, none of these flings lasted for any length of time.

I didn't know how to have relationships, so I took hostages!

I didn't know how to behave appropriately in a love relationship. However, I did have two children with my then girlfriend, but I was just like my dad and alcohol ruined everything.

AGE TWENTY-NINE I got sent back to prison and lost everything. How I didn't kill anyone or be killed during this time of chaotic madness in my life, was pure luck!

AGE THIRTY After being released from prison, I tried to rebuild my life in Spain and Portugal. But during a time of violence, I was stabbed and my main arteries were severed. The Spanish police told me; "If it wasn't for the two Roman Catholic nuns that helped you, you would have bled to death".

Due to alcohol dependency, I was nearing a point in my life when I would be emotionally, spiritually and financially bankrupt. I was finding it difficult to cope with basic everyday life. I was even afraid to open the mail, which I would hide, so it was out of sight out of mind!

AGE THIRTY-FIVE after yet another relationship break-up, my mental health was deteriorating rapidly. I was getting very close to my rock bottom, drowning in alcohol and smoking up to sixty cigarettes a day to help calm my nerves.

On the 15th January 1993 I called out to God with the following thought; "To hell with it I will give my life to J." I just got the J of Jesus out, and in that split atom of time, God met me, saved me, and loved me. It was then that I realised, all I ever wanted in life was to be accepted and loved. I cried daily for about two weeks, as everything was a new revelation.

I became part of a small church but after about nine months, I became disturbed at how the religious gestapo used the Bible to control people. I had been up that route in the children's home and 100% I wasn't up for any more of that nonsense.

If it hadn't been for an elderly couple called John & Gwen who loved me and my children at their dinner table for the next five years, I would have turned my back on the nonsense many know as Christianity. Man will reject religion and religious formulas but man will never reject unconditional love? Love Wins!!!

All I did for the next five years was read and try to learn the Bible, but being only semi-literate, I found the Bible difficult to understand. So I would learn the stories from children's picture Bibles. After a while I started to join the stories together, until twelve years later, I knew the whole Bible as just one story.

In 2007 to help other people learn the Bible, I made a film called "The Glory Story" which is the Bible as one story Genesis to Revelation on two DVD's the Old & New Testaments.

Today, The Glory Story has been translated by Wycliffe and many other mission organisations and is used around the world to teach the Bible story in over 100 languages. You can find out more here: www.TheGloryStory.com

In 2010 my autobiography resulted in one of the paedophiles standing trial for raping eight boys from the children's home. This paedophile was a very wealthy name at Lloyds of London. He was also a "Christian" church leader in Maidenhead for over 30 years. It is a well-documented fact, that after Maidenhead council (a public body) had paid out over £1,000,000 in legal fees and compensation to over twelve of his rape victims, instead of giving the file to the police to assist with a criminal investigation, the council amazingly decided to enter a secret agreement with the same man whose rape victims they had previously compensated.

After offering no defence whatsoever other than a denial, this paedophile was found not guilty after a six-week trial. This was a very grave miscarriage of justice; I was so upset and emotionally disturbed, that I took the law into my own hands and poured a bottle of petrol over the paedophile in Reading Crown Court, in front of the judge and barristers, with a view to lighting him up if he didn't confess. I was sent to prison for a year for contempt of court.

After leaving prison I started the Prison Letter Ministry, it was then that I started to blossom and flourish as a person. I had unknowingly broken the psychological and emotional stronghold this abuser had had over me all of my life. You can read the full story at; www.TheNobbler.com

"80% of the people I knocked about with as a young man are dead and not one of them died from natural causes!"

In 2016 I invented a diy kit that removes condensation from failed double-glazed units. Today that kit is sold in numerous countries around the world. www.Condensation2Clear.com

In 2020 I have great relationships with both of my grown-up children, who much to my amazement tell their friends I was a good dad bringing them up. I also run a small business that creates a living for six people. www.ChoiceFascias.co.uk
